

Review European Higher Education Fair New Delhi 2006 (EHEF)

The EHEF New Delhi 2006 was a success well beyond expectations and met the interest of more than 8,000 visitors.

The EHEF New Delhi 2006 attracted a total of 109 exhibitors from 22 European countries. The 89 Higher Education Institutes and the 20 National Representations provided information on:

- the broad range of study courses,
- tailor-made programmes for international students conducted in English,
- enrolment procedures,
- languages requirements,
- living conditions and related issues as well as
- national scholarship programmes.

In addition to the European countries represented, the European Commission disseminated information about the European Union, European Scholarship Programmes as well as India/EU cooperation initiatives in the field of higher education.
